PSE session — Tuesday, 25 August 2026

ACTIONABLE HIGHLIGHTS — THE CALL

ACCUMULATE	ALI — leasing pivot draws the tape’s largest foreign bid Ayala Land closed +3.95% at ₱15.80 and absorbed the day’s single largest foreign net inflow (+₱74.24M) even as the PSEi fell 0.98%. The bid tracks ALI’s deliberate shift from residential sales toward recurring lease income — leasing and hospitality reached ~35% of H1-2026 revenue (from 29% a year earlier), net gearing a manageable 0.8x. We keep ALI as our lead accumulate on relative strength and defensible cash flows.
MONITOR	Foreign desk stays a net seller — ₱542M out Net foreign selling of ₱542.12M was concentrated in index heavyweights: BDO (–₱169.7M), ICT (–₱142.1M), TEL (–₱122.5M) and SM (–₱72.7M). Buying clustered in ALI (+₱74.2M), AP (+₱42.7M), JFC (+₱11.7M), FGEN (+₱10.8M) and AC (+₱10.2M) — a rotation into property and power rather than a broad risk-on.
WATCH	Miners in focus on EO 122 and firmer gold Executive Order 122 sets a unified national framework for the critical-minerals industry, while gold held near a three-month high on the returning “debasement trade.” Mining & Oil still slipped 0.77%; NIKL (+₱2.48M) and PX (+₱2.16M) drew selective foreign buying. Watch NIKL, PX, APX and AT for policy-led re-rating.

PHILIPPINES STRATEGY

The PSEi slipped 0.98% to close at 6,190.23 on ₱5.27B turnover, with losses led by Services (−1.65%) and Holding Firms (−1.05%); Industrial was the most resilient (−0.06%). Breadth was negative at 77 advancers against 108 decliners. Foreign investors were net sellers of ₱542.12M, though the flow was selective — property and power names (ALI, AP, FGEN) drew inflows against heavy selling in banks and telcos. The peso firmed to 61.73 per dollar.

Regulatory & macro:

- SEC to limit “Group A” status to auditors with no material deficiencies (BusinessWorld).
- Metro Manila data-center pipeline shrinks ~13% as new projects lag (BusinessWorld).
- Regulator: regulatory-sandbox entry is no shield from penalties over securities violations (BusinessWorld).
- Executive Order 122 (Marcos Jr.) establishes a unified national framework to develop the critical-minerals industry.

CORPORATE STANCE CARDS

ALI	₱15.80 +3.95%	Recurring-income pivot underwrites relative strength	Ayala Land rose 3.95% and took in ₱74.24M of net foreign buying — the day's largest — against a falling index. Management continues to reallocate capital from residential development toward leasing and hospitality, which reached roughly 35% of first-half 2026 revenue from 29% a year earlier, per company and media disclosures. 2026 capex was trimmed to ~₱50B with launches roughly halved, while net gearing held at a manageable 0.8x and a ₱10B buyback was flagged.	The market is paying for the durability of rental cash flows over cyclical development booking. Relative strength plus the flow signal argue for accumulation on the leasing re-rating thesis.	Stance: ACCUMULATE 🟢
JFC	₱160.70 +0.44%	Global footprint now spans 33 countries	Jollibee Foods was cited for its expansion across 33 countries (BusinessWorld) and drew ₱11.70M in net foreign buying, one of the day's larger inflows. The stock edged higher in a down market, and turnover kept it inside the top-10 most-active names by value at ₱94.47M.	International scale diversifies earnings away from a single domestic cycle; steady foreign accumulation supports a constructive bias, though valuation leaves limited margin for execution slips.	Stance: ACCUMULATE 🟢
ICT	₱949.00 ▼	Value leader, but the foreign desk's biggest exit	International Container led the board on regular-market value at ₱872.81M yet posted the single largest foreign net sell of -₱142.12M, on top of ₱247.9M of block crosses. The close was lower on the session.	Heavy institutional distribution into an otherwise liquid name warrants caution near-term despite ICT's structural franchise; we would wait for the foreign selling to abate before adding.	Stance: MONITOR 🟡
TEL	₱1,195.00 ▼	ESG supplier program amid heavy foreign selling	PLDT rolled out ESG assessments for suppliers (BusinessWorld) but the tape was dominated by -₱122.52M of net foreign selling, the second-largest on the day. TEL was among the heaviest drags on the Services sector, which fell 1.65%.	Governance/ESG progress is a positive medium-term signal, but flows and sector weakness keep us neutral until the selling pressure clears.	Stance: MONITOR 🟡

SMARTWATCH

US–Canada tariffs	Trump to hike tariffs to 50% on Canadian autos, parts and steel effective 1 Jan 2027; retaliatory 50% duties (eff. 8 Sep 2026) threaten consumer-goods prices. Honda, Toyota fell.
Nvidia earnings	GPU rental rates rising again into Wednesday-afternoon results; a key swing factor for global tech sentiment and, by extension, PH IT names.
Bitcoin	BTC cleared $80K, peaking above $81K after a $1.92B weekly inflow into US spot ETFs and short-covering — its strongest multi-day rally since 2023.
Energy / LNG	Asian LNG at highest since March on US–Iran tension and Strait of Hormuz doubts; watch power and gas-exposed names (FGEN, SMC, MER, AP).
US visas	White House says the US is set to revoke visas from ~200,000 foreigners — a potential OFW / remittance sentiment watch item.
