Ayala Corp. Commands P208M Foreign Buying; Purchases 9.28M ALI Shares in Buyback

Ayala Corp. was the session's dominant flow name at P208 million net foreign buying on P474 million turnover — the largest single-name inflow in over a week. AC rose 0.6% to P490. Separately, AC purchased 9,282,080 Ayala Land common shares at an average price of P16.929, continuing its systematic buyback program. AC also retained its place in the FTSE4Good Index Series, reinforcing ESG credentials. The LRT-1 Cavite extension cleared a key right-of-way hurdle, benefiting AC Infra and Metro Pacific (GTCAP).

AC's P208M inflow signals a decisive return of institutional conviction after the prior week's selloff. The ALI share buyback at P16.93 provides a visible floor for ALI's stock. The deep-value thesis across the Ayala group (AC, ALI, AREIT) remains intact.

ICT 957.00

ICT Selling Continues at -P212M but Halves from Prior Session's -P503M

ICT recorded P212 million in net foreign selling, still the session's largest outflow but meaningfully less than the P503M liquidation on July 22. The stock fell 0.3% to P957 on P1.23 billion turnover. Block sales of P170M (two blocks at P962-P968) were above close. Three-session cumulative foreign selling now exceeds P770M. Brent crude breaking $100 provides fundamental tailwind for ICT's dollar-denominated earnings.

The halving of selling pressure from -P503M to -P212M suggests the large institutional liquidation is winding down. With Brent above $100, ICT's earnings outlook strengthens. The P940-P950 zone remains the preferred re-entry level for patient accumulation.

BRENT $100

Brent Crude Breaks $100/Barrel — Strait of Hormuz at Crawl; Houthi Attacks Escalate

Brent crude surged to $100.52, breaking the psychologically critical $100 threshold for the first time since May. WTI hit $92.12. The Strait of Hormuz — through which roughly 20% of global oil supply transits — has seen traffic slow to a crawl amid U.S.-Iran conflict. Yemen's Houthis attacked two Saudi oil tankers (Encelia and Layla) in the Red Sea with missiles and drones. The British navy confirmed a strike near Al Shuqaiq, Saudi Arabia.

$100 Brent is a game-changer for PSE positioning. Dollar earners (ICT), oil producers (SCC, SHLPH), and energy utilities (MER, AP) benefit from the commodity tailwind. Consumer-facing names face margin pressure. The peso weakened to 61.82. Aviation (PAL, CEB) faces renewed fuel-cost headwinds.

 MACRO EVENT

MWC 35.10

Manila Water Attracts P63M Foreign Buying — 4th Consecutive Session

Manila Water recorded P63.5 million in net foreign buying on P188M turnover, marking its fourth consecutive session of institutional inflows: P34M, P34M, P70M, P63M = P201M cumulative. The stock dipped 1.7% to P35.10 despite the buying, suggesting some local profit-taking. MWC remains the most consistent foreign-flow magnet in the current environment.

MWC's sustained institutional accumulation across four sessions signals a structural positioning trade into defensive regulated utilities. The P201M cumulative flow is the most concentrated utility-sector inflow this month.

BDO 126.00

BDO Rebounds 2.5% with P26M Foreign Buying; Banks Lead Recovery

BDO surged 2.52% to P126.00 on P270M turnover with P26.2 million in net foreign buying, reversing its recent selling streak. The broader Financials sector led the session at +1.19%. BPI also attracted P37.2M buying. Block sales of P30M (241K shares at P123.17) were below close, suggesting demand above the block price.

BDO's rebound from P122.90 to P126 is technically constructive. The Financials sector's +1.19% gain suggests the rate-driven selloff may have found a floor. PHL 10Y at 7.47% remains elevated but the market appears to have priced in the BSP Aug. 27 risk.

 MONITOR

FPH 91.90First Phil. Holdings Gains 2.2% as Board Defers ASM to September

First Phil. Holdings rose 2.17% to P91.90 with P2.6M net foreign buying. The FPH board approved deferring its 2026 Annual Stockholders' Meeting from July 27 to September 25, 2026. The EDC/Barito Renewables bid and FGEN's broader restructuring remain the key catalysts for the Lopez energy group.

FPH's ASM deferral likely reflects ongoing discussions around the Barito/EDC deal timeline. The stock's 2.2% gain suggests market comfort with the delay.

 MONITOR
SCC 22.65Semirara Gains 5.1% as Brent Hits $100; Coal Stable at $131

Semirara Mining jumped 5.1% to P22.65 on P113M turnover with P5.9M net foreign buying. The coal and power producer benefits from elevated energy prices, though coal itself was flat at $130.75. SCC's mining operations remain the subject of the ongoing DOE data dispute.

SCC is a direct beneficiary of $100 Brent through its power generation arm. The P22-P23 range offers accumulation value for investors with conviction on sustained energy prices.

 MONITOR
ALI 16.84ALI Foreign Selling Continues at -P75M; 5th Consecutive Session of Outflows

Ayala Land dropped 0.5% to P16.84 with P74.6 million in net foreign selling on P276M turnover. This marks the fifth consecutive session of institutional selling, with cumulative outflows now exceeding P535M. AC's buyback of 9.28M ALI shares at P16.93 provides a visible floor but has not yet stemmed the foreign tide.

ALI's P535M+ cumulative foreign selling over five sessions is the most sustained institutional distribution in the current cycle. AC's buyback floor at P16.93 is the key support level. The stock is approaching deep-value territory but flow momentum remains adverse.

 AVOID NEAR-TERM
JFC 145.30JFC Drops 1.8% with P55M Foreign Selling; Consumer Names Under Pressure

Jollibee Foods fell 1.83% to P145.30 with P54.8 million in net foreign selling on P145M turnover. The consumer-facing conglomerate continues to face headwinds from rising input costs ($100 Brent) and rate-driven consumer caution (BSP at 4.75%). JFC has now seen multi-session foreign selling.

JFC's P55M session outflow reflects the broader rotation away from consumer names into commodity and defensive plays. The $100 Brent reality compounds input-cost pressure across the food chain. Support at P140-P142.

 MONITOR
EMI 15.70Emperador Attracts P25M Foreign Buying; Spirits Business Resilient

Emperador Inc. gained 1.6% to P15.70 with P24.5 million in net foreign buying, the fifth-largest inflow on the session. The spirits company benefits from relatively inelastic demand and dollar export revenues.

EMI's consistent foreign buying over multiple sessions positions it as an under-the-radar defensive play within the industrial sector.
