THE CALL

Broad rally, and the foreign bid persists. The PSEi snapped its slide with a +0.74% (+46.48) advance to 6,302.50 — its best close of the week — on positive breadth (96/88/63) and a SECOND straight day of foreign net buying (+ ₱280M). Financials led (+1.13%) as US and PHL 10-year yields eased (US 10-yr -8bps to 4.55%), and every sector closed green except Mining & Oil (-0.60%). Two milestones stole the tape: ICT became the FIRST PSE name to close above a ₱2-trillion market cap (and drew +₱278M foreign for a third straight session), while First Gen rocketed on a $5B+ NON-BINDING cash buyout offer from Indonesia's Barito Renewables for its geothermal unit EDC — one of Asia's largest clean-energy proposals. Converge added a ₱5B buyback (+₱23M foreign). Value stayed light at ₱4.31B.

WATCH: FGEN/EDC deal terms · VITRO REIT pricing · PSEi reconstitution (CNVRG) · oil / Strait-of-Hormuz path · US bank & tech earnings.

QUICK HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ PSEi +0.74% to 6,302.50 (+46.48) — best close of the week; breadth positive 96/88/63.

INTERNATIONAL & MACRO

Wall Street — records	US indexes rallied for a second straight session, with financial shares climbing to an all-time high, lifting the Dow (+0.30%), S&P 500 (+0.76%) and NASDAQ (+1.53%). The softer US 10-year yield (−8bps to 4.55%) underpinned the risk-on bid.
Oil & metals firm	Crude rose for a third day as fuel markets tightened (WTI ~$80, Brent ~$85); metals firmed alongside — copper +1.7%, silver +1.0%, nickel +0.9% — while gold held near $4,065/oz. Grains jumped (wheat +6.9%, corn +2.5%).
Asia rebound extends	The regional recovery from Monday's rout broadened: Korea's Kospi surged +6.2%, Nikkei +1.5%, Taiwan +2.0% and Hang Seng +1.4%. Vietnam (−1.4%) and Shanghai (−0.3%) lagged.
Deal flow — clean energy	Indonesia's Barito Renewables tabled a $5B+ (up to ~$7B EV) cash proposal for First Gen's geothermal unit EDC — a landmark Asian clean-energy bid that drove the day's standout single-stock move on the PSE.

Manila snapped a three-day slide with conviction: the PSEi added 46.48 points to 6,302.50, its best close of the week, on positive breadth of 96 advancers to 88 decliners. The move was broad — every sector rose except Mining & Oil (–0.60%), with Financials out front (+1.13%) as US and local 10-year yields eased. Foreigners stayed net buyers for a second straight day (+₱280M), even as headline value remained thin at ₱4.31B. The session's character was set by two stories: ICT's push through a ₱2-trillion market cap (its third consecutive day of ~₱278M foreign inflow) and First Gen's surge on a $5-billion, non-binding cash offer from Barito Renewables for its geothermal unit EDC. Converge's ₱5B buyback expansion added to the constructive tone.

CORPORATE NEWS & STANCES

ACCUMULATE ON DIPS

ICT Int'l Container Terminal Svcs.P999.00 +0.60%

A landmark session: ICT became the FIRST PSE-listed company to close above a P2-trillion market capitalisation, and the flow backed the milestone — +P277.7M of net foreign buying for a THIRD straight day and #1 turnover at P993M (block-crossed 57,940 sh at P992.38). Across three sessions the port operator has absorbed close to P1.06B of foreign inflow, an extraordinary concentration for a single dollar-earning name. It remains the desk's anchor defensive-growth holding.

Stance: Accumulate on dips. PT P1,200. The P2-trillion cap and three-day foreign bid confirm leadership; add on any pullback toward the P960s.

EVENT-DRIVEN — NON-BINDING

FGEN First Gen Corp / EDCP19.80 +18.4%

First Gen rocketed — intraday to P22.30 (~+33%) before closing +18% — after Indonesia's PT Barito Renewables Energy tabled a NON-BINDING all-cash offer to acquire its geothermal unit Energy Development Corp. (EDC), valuing EDC's equity at ~$5B and up to ~$7B on an enterprise basis; the print marked FGEN's highest level since mid-2025. It ranked #2 in turnover (P449M) with +P27.4M of foreign buying. If consummated, it would be one of Asia's largest recent clean-energy transactions and a material value-crystallisation for FGEN's stake.

Stance: Event-driven; trade with discipline. The offer is NON-BINDING — capture the re-rating but avoid chasing the intraday spike; size to definitive terms and any competing bid.

MONITOR

MER MeralcoP576.00 +1.95%

MER advanced despite a regulatory setback — the ERC denied the joint application for the Meralco–Sual power-supply deal. Notably, foreigners bought it heavily anyway (+P34.2M), a vote of confidence that the earnings base is resilient to a single PSA outcome. The stock block-crossed 100,000 sh at P565.81.

Stance: Monitor. The ERC denial is a near-term overhang, but the strong foreign bid and defensive utility cash flows keep it a core hold; watch for a refilled or restructured supply arrangement.

MONITOR — IMPROVING

CNVRG Converge ICT SolutionsP9.25 +0.11%

Converge expanded its share-buyback programme by P5B and drew +P22.6M of net foreign buying — extending the contrarian bid that has met the stock's PSEi-reconstitution overhang. The enlarged buyback puts a firmer floor under the shares while the index-review question plays out.

Stance: Monitor (improving). The buyback plus persistent foreign accumulation is constructive; the reconstitution remains the swing factor.

MONITOR

BPI Financials (BPI · BDO · MBT)P103.50 +0.49%

Financials led the market (+1.13%) as yields eased — the US 10-yr fell ~8bps to 4.55% and the PHL 10-yr slipped to 7.25%. Flow favoured BPI (+P43.3M, the day's second-largest inflow), while BDO (–P10.4M) and MBT (–P7.8M) saw modest selling. The softer rate backdrop is the key near-term tailwind for the group.

Stance: Monitor. BPI the preferred foreign-favoured name; a sustained move lower in the 10-yr would be the trigger to turn more constructive on the sector.

ACCUMULATEALI Ayala Land, Inc.P15.74 -0.38%

ALI eased against the broad rally and took the day's heaviest foreign outflow (–P47.0M) — a continuation of the choppy foreign book in the Ayala complex (parent AC also saw –P37.8M). The deep-value thesis is intact (trading below book, group balance-sheet backstop), but the persistent foreign selling is a near-term headwind into a still-bottoming property cycle.

Stance: Accumulate (deep value) in tranches toward 52-week support; let the foreign selling exhaust before adding aggressively.

GOVERNANCE WATCHAP Aboitiz Power / Renewables build-outP40.55 -0.49%

AboitizPower is advancing an P8.44B Ilocos wind-farm project, extending its renewables build-out, while Citicore RE (CREC) secured a P4.05B landbank loan for two solar projects — reinforcing the sector capex momentum that also underpins the FGEN/EDC story. AP still carries a DOE outage-review overhang from prior months.

Stance: Governance watch on AP pending the outage review; constructive on the broader renewables build-out (CREC, ACEN, the geothermal re-rating).

MONITORJFC Jollibee Foods CorpP146.50 +0.34%

JFC edged higher but logged a third consecutive session of foreign selling (–P17.1M), though the pace is easing from earlier in the week. The franchise story is intact; the flow simply argues for patience.

Stance: Monitor. Re-add into the low-P140s once the foreign selling clearly abates.
