THE CALL

Third up-day at home — but the overnight lead sours. The PSEi extended its rebound with a +0.35% (+22.65) gain to 6,325.15 on strong breadth (117/78/57) and a THIRD straight day of foreign net buying (+P195M), with value picking up to P7.42B. Mining & Oil roared +2.90% (PX +8%, Atlas +4%) and Holding Firms led on a +3.6% surge in Ayala Corp; only Services slipped. The catch: Manila closed before Wall Street rolled over — US tech fell (Nasdaq -1.5%) as TSMC's strong print failed to hold AI momentum, Japan (-5.6%) and Korea (-6.4%) tumbled, and metals reversed hard (gold -1.8%, silver -4.0%). Corporate-wise, ICT plans to buy out the rest of its Brazil logistics unit, the ERC rejected the Meralco–San Miguel supply deal, and Mynt (GCash) filed its SEC registration. Foreign flow stayed selective — BDO (+P51M) and AC (+P35M) led inflows; URC (-P84M) and SM (-P61M) the outflows.

WATCH: the risk-off global lead into today's open · Mynt / GCash IPO · oil & Middle East · the metals pullback (mining follow-through) · PSEi reconstitution (CNVRG).

Manila logged a third straight advance, adding 22.65 points to 6,325.15 with the broadest breadth of the week (117 advancers to 78 decliners) and a firmer ₱7.42B tape. Foreigners were net buyers for a third consecutive day (+₱195M). Mining & Oil led emphatically (+2.90%) as PX (+8%) and Atlas (+4%) surged, with Holding Firms close behind (+0.94%) on a +3.6% jump in Ayala Corp; Financials (+0.88%) and Property (+0.74%) also firmed. Only Services (-0.22%) slipped, weighed by a modest ICT pullback. Flow leadership rotated to the banks — BDO drew the day's single-largest inflow (+₱51M) — while the consumer names URC (-₱84M) and SM (-₱61M) saw the heaviest distribution. The session, however, closed ahead of a decidedly risk-off overnight lead abroad, which frames a more cautious tone for the next open.

CORPORATE NEWS & STANCES

ACCUMULATE ON DIPS

ICT Int'l Container Terminal Svcs.P990.00 -0.90%

A day after crossing a P2-trillion market cap, ICT disclosed plans to acquire the REMAINING stake in its Brazil logistics unit — deepening its highest-margin Latin American exposure. It stayed #1 in turnover (P854M) with continued, if more moderate, foreign buying (+P30.7M) and very heavy block-cross activity (multiple crosses near P999–1,003). The three-day foreign-inflow streak has cooled from its ~P280M/day peak but remains net positive.

Stance: Accumulate on dips. PT P1,200. The Brazil buy-out reinforces the dollar-earnings thesis; use any consolidation below P1,000 to add.

ACCUMULATE

AC Ayala CorpP484.00 +3.64%

Ayala Corp led the holding-firm rally (+0.94%), jumping +3.6% on the day's #2 turnover (P695M, swollen by block crosses) and +P35.2M of net foreign buying. The parent's re-rating comes even as its property arm ALI lagged (–P19M foreign), suggesting rotation up the Ayala structure into the conglomerate's diversified earnings and balance-sheet optionality.

Stance: Accumulate. The foreign bid and turnover leadership mark AC as the preferred Ayala-complex exposure into a broadening market.

MONITOR

BDO Banks (BDO · BPI · MBT · SECB)P126.80 +2.26%

Banks were the flow story: BDO drew the single largest inflow on the board (+P50.9M, +2.3%), joined by SECB (+P18.0M) and MBT (+P17.3M); BPI added +P8.2M even as its H1 profit reportedly slipped on higher expenses. The sector rose +0.88% with rates stable (PHL 10-yr ~7.25%). InstaPay/PESONet volumes reaching P16-trillion underscore the digital-payments tailwind.

Stance: Monitor, with a constructive tilt. BDO/MBT/SECB are the foreign-favoured names; the softer overnight global tape is the main near-term risk.

GOVERNANCE WATCH

MER Meralco / San Miguel PSAP570.00 -1.04%

The ERC formally REJECTED the joint Meralco–San Miguel (Sual) power-supply agreement, removing a supply arrangement the market had partly discounted. MER eased –1.0% on the headline yet still attracted +P20.8M of foreign buying, signalling the earnings base is viewed as resilient. The decision keeps regulatory risk front-of-mind for the group's PSA pipeline.

Stance: Governance watch. Defensive utility cash flows and the persistent foreign bid support a hold; monitor for a refilled or alternative supply deal.

MONITOR — CATALYST

GLO Globe Telecom / Mynt (GCash)P1,824.00 +1.11%

Globe advanced +1.1% as its fintech associate Mynt (parent of GCash) filed its registration statement with the SEC (second publication) — advancing a long-awaited IPO that could crystallise substantial value for Globe's stake. Globe separately locked in a P10B landbank loan. Foreign flow was modestly positive (+P3.4M).

Stance: Monitor (catalyst). The Mynt/GCash listing is the key value-unlock; accumulate GLO on weakness ahead of pricing clarity.

MONITORPX Mining complex (PX · AT · APX)P7.75 +8.10%

Mining & Oil roared +2.90% — the day's best sector — led by PX (+8%, +P15.7M foreign) and Atlas (+4%, +P5.9M). The move rewarded the desk's mining watch, but it ran just as the overnight metals complex reversed hard (gold -1.8%, silver -4.0%, copper -1.6%). The follow-through into the next session is therefore at risk.

Stance: Monitor; bank some of the strength. PX/AT the momentum leaders, but the metals pullback overnight argues against chasing here.

MONITORURC Universal Robina CorpP61.40 +1.15%

URC rose on a positive operating story — Jack 'n Jill's deeper push into Hong Kong drew retailer recognition — yet it registered by far the day's LARGEST foreign outflow (-P83.8M). The divergence between an improving franchise narrative and heavy foreign distribution is the key tension to resolve.

Stance: Monitor. Constructive fundamentally, but wait for the foreign selling to clear before adding.

RE-ACCUMULATEJFC Jollibee Foods CorpP149.00 +1.71%

After three straight sessions of foreign selling, JFC's flow FLIPPED decisively to buying (+P24.6M) and the shares rose +1.7% to P149. The reversal removes the flow-driven caution that had prompted the earlier downgrade to Monitor.

Stance: Re-accumulate (upgraded from Monitor). The foreign bid has returned; the low-P140s remain a comfortable add zone.

INTERNATIONAL & MACRO — OVERNIGHT LEAD INTO 17 JULY

Wall Street — tech fades	US stocks fell on Thursday as robust TSMC earnings failed to sustain AI momentum; the Nasdaq led lower into the close (−1.5%), with the S&P (−0.5%) and Dow (−0.2%) also easing. Netflix slipped as Q2 revenue of $12.56B narrowly missed the $12.58B estimate.
Middle East — escalation	Brent held above $85 amid renewed Middle East tension, with the US continuing to strike Iran; the US military disabled a sanctioned supertanker in the Persian Gulf after it breached the reimposed shipping blockade near Kharg Island. The UST 10-yr firmed ~4bps toward 4.58% overnight.
Asia — rebound reverses	North Asia gave back its recovery: Japan's Nikkei tumbled −5.6% and Korea's Kospi −6.4%, while Shanghai fell −1.9%. Hong Kong (+1.3%) and Southeast Asia (JCI +1.1%, Vietnam +1.2%) bucked the trend. Foreign funds kept piling into Korea's iShares MSCI ETF (~$1.9B over two days).
Commodities — metals reverse	The metals complex pulled back sharply — gold −1.8% (~$3,993), silver −4.0%, copper −1.6%, cocoa −8.9% — a headwind for the PSE mining names that had just rallied +2.9%. Oil was mixed (WTI ~$79.5, Brent ~$85.9).
