THE CALL

PSEi falls sharply to 5,879.41 (-0.99%, -58.97 pts) as Asian markets sold off in tandem with Wall Street's Nasdaq circuit-breaker-adjacent plunge. Market breadth collapsed: 53 advances vs. 133 declines. Net foreign selling surged to PHP 754.3M (-USD 12.26M) - the heaviest single-session foreign outflow in recent weeks - as ALI alone absorbed PHP 311.9M in foreign selling.

Key stories: JFC fell to PHP 131.30 but global listing optionality remains a catalyst. Megaworld fully leased 24 office towers with blue-chip tenants including JPMorgan, Wells Fargo, and Coca-Cola. ACEN/ACMobility launched bundled EV charging + renewable energy packages. SMPH pivots to experiential retail for mall growth. Diesel prices jumped PHP 5+/L on Iran war supply tightening. PHL 10yr bond yield eased to 7.488% (from 7.561%). SpaceX IPO set for June 12.

GLOBAL MACRO

US Tech Rebounds - But Caution Warranted: US stocks ended mostly higher on Monday as tech partially rebounded from Friday's Nasdaq plunge (-4.77%). However, Bank of America Securities warned that an increasing number of "bear market signposts" are pointing to an approaching top - the S&P 500 is statistically expensive and showing speculative excess matching criteria typically seen before prior market tops. The dollar edged lower and Treasury yields pared some of their recent rise as Iran-Israel hostilities appeared to subside following US diplomatic pressure for de-escalation, though the geopolitical premium in energy markets has not fully dissipated.

KOSPI Circuit Breaker Triggered: The brutality of the prior week's selloff left Korean investors stunned: just three minutes into Monday's session, the KOSPI plunged nearly 9%, triggering a mandatory circuit breaker. The index ultimately closed at 7,769.18 (-4.80%), reflecting the severity of the AI-chip valuation correction following the prior week's extraordinary 86% YTD run. KOSDAQ similarly plunged as much as 8%.

SpaceX IPO on June 12: SpaceX confirmed its IPO timeline: pricing the night of June 11, 2026, with trading beginning June 12. The IPO is set to be one of the largest US technology listings in history. For emerging markets including the Philippines, a large-cap US IPO event can divert global capital away from EM equities in the near term.

North Korea Nuclear "Red Line": North Korean Supreme Leader Kim Jong Un preemptively declared his nuclear weapons program an "absolute, irreversible red line," shutting down any denuclearization talks. Coming alongside Xi Jinping's state visit to Pyongyang (June 8-9), this underscores the deepening China-Russia-DPRK strategic axis and elevates geopolitical risk across the Asian region.

Trump Tariffs on 60+ Economies: The Trump administration moved forward with proposed tariffs of 10%-12.5% on imports from approximately 60 economies over alleged forced-labor violations. Canada, Mexico, Taiwan, and the UK face 10% additional tariffs; China, Japan, India, South Korea, Brazil, and Switzerland face a 12.5% levy. The Philippines' electronics and semiconductor export exposure warrants monitoring.

PHILIPPINES STRATEGY

PSEi Joins Asian Selloff - Foreign Outflows Accelerate.

The PSEi closed June 8 at 5,879.41, declining 58.97 points or -0.99%, as the Nasdaq plunge-driven selloff propagated through Asian markets on Monday. Session breadth collapsed: 53 advances vs. 133 declines. Six of six sectors declined, led by Mining & Oil (-4.03%).

Net foreign selling surged to PHP 754.3M on June 8, the heaviest single-session outflow in recent weeks. ALI absorbed PHP 311.9M, JFC PHP 124.9M, and SMPH PHP 57.9M in net foreign selling. ICT attracted PHP 53.3M in net foreign buying on PHP 1.74B in turnover.

Key context: The PHL 10-year bond yield eased to 7.488% from 7.561%, a constructive sign. The peso slipped to 61.68. PSEi support at 5,800; resistance at 6,050. SpaceX IPO on June 12 and ongoing Iran tensions are key near-term variables.

PHL Treasury Bill Auction Results (June 9):

PHP 10B 364-Day Bill - yield: 6.267% (fell) | PHP 20B 182-Day Bill - yield: 5.679% (rose) | PHP 26B 91-Day Bill - yield: 5.188% (rose)

The 364-day yield falling while shorter tenors rose suggests the market expects near-term rate pressure but anticipates eventual easing - a constructive signal for longer-duration assets including REITs.

CORPORATE UPDATES

MEG | MEGAWORLD - 24 OFFICE TOWERS FULLY LEASED; GLOBAL OCCUPIERS ANCHOR PORTFOLIO

Megaworld Corp. (MEG) disclosed that 24 of its office towers across its Philippine township portfolio are now fully occupied, with tenants including JPMorgan Chase, Wells Fargo, Coca-Cola, Reckitt, and Mead Johnson - a roster of large global occupiers that validates Megaworld's position as a tier-one BPO/corporate real estate landlord. The fully leased towers span multiple township developments including McKinley West, Uptown Bonifacio, Eastwood City, and Iloilo Business Park. Megaworld's strategy of embedding grade-A office supply within integrated lifestyle townships - connecting residential, retail, and commercial components - has proven resilient to the post-pandemic hybrid work headwinds that impacted standalone office markets in Metro Manila.

For equity investors, full office occupancy in 24 towers provides a high level of recurring revenue visibility and base-case earnings protection even as new residential sales face headwinds from elevated financing costs. MEG closed June 8 at PHP 1.98 (-2.96%) with PHP 27.6M in turnover and PHP 19.2M in net foreign selling. The stock is near multi-year lows relative to its income base.

JFC | JOLLIBEE FOODS - GLOBAL LISTING REVIEW CONTINUES; RSI DEEPLY OVERSOLD

Jollibee Foods Corp. (JFC) confirmed it continues to evaluate strategic options for the planned listing of its international business, stating that it seeks to determine "what would best serve the best interests of the company and its shareholders" - with evaluations remaining ongoing. This ambiguity was interpreted cautiously by foreign investors, who sold PHP 124.9M worth of JFC on June 8 (a sharp reversal from Fridays PHP 134.3M net buying). JFC closed at PHP 131.30 (-3.67%), pulling back to its lowest level since the MSCI-forced 52-week low of PHP 126.90.

The global listing optionality is significant: a successful international IPO of Jollibee's international brands - which include The Coffee Bean, Highlands Coffee, Smashburger, and the growing China business - could unlock substantial value hidden within the consolidated Philippine-listed entity. RSI remains deeply oversold. The selloff on listing uncertainty is a buying opportunity for investors with a medium-term view.

 ACCUMULATE - RSI deeply oversold; global listing is a major potential catalyst JFC @ PHP PHP 131.30

SMPH | SM PRIME - EXPERIENTIAL RETAIL PIVOT; CHINA STRATEGY REFOCUS ON FUJIAN

SM Prime Holdings (SMPH) outlined its strategy of "experiential retail" as the key driver of future mall traffic and tenant mix - shifting from transaction-based retail toward experiences that cannot be replicated online, including dining, entertainment, wellness, fitness, and family learning. This pivot directly responds to the structural challenge of e-commerce, which has steadily eroded the anchor role of traditional retail tenants. SMPH has identified food, beverage, and entertainment as the growth segments for tenant renewal, with an emphasis on Filipino dining concepts and regional F&B brands.

Simultaneously, Insider PH reported that SM Prime's China strategy is deepening its focus on Fujian province - the birthplace of founder Henry Sy Sr. - where it has operated since 2001. SM Prime is now opening its first hotel in China, evolving the strategy beyond retail into integrated hospitality. SMPH closed June 8 at PHP 17.92 (-1.10%) with PHP 121.2M in turnover and PHP 57.9M in net foreign selling. The stock is at 52-week low territory.

 MONITOR - Experiential pivot is strategically sound but executional; bond deferral weight SMPH @ PHP PHP 17.92

ACEN / AC | ACEN & ACMOBILITY - BUNDLED EV CHARGING + RENEWABLE ENERGY LAUNCH

ACEN Corp. and AC Mobility (both under the Ayala ecosystem) launched a bundled package that pairs 100% renewable retail electricity supply with EV charging infrastructure, allowing corporate and commercial clients to power on-site vehicle fleets or public EV chargers exclusively with green energy - without requiring on-site solar panel installations. The product addresses a key pain point for businesses seeking to decarbonize their vehicle fleet: the complexity and capex of building dedicated renewable energy generation on-site. By leveraging ACEN's existing green electricity supply pool and ACMobility's EV charging network, clients can achieve full renewable EV charging with a single service agreement.

The product launch positions ACEN at the intersection of two of the Philippines' fastest-growing infrastructure themes: renewable energy and electric mobility. ACEN closed June 8 at PHP 3.26 (-5.51%) on PHP 37.6M in turnover and PHP 5.3M in net foreign selling - a pullback after its extraordinary +11.3% surge on Friday June 5.

 MONITOR - EV-RE bundling is strategically differentiated; pullback from Friday surge ACEN @ PHP PHP 3.26

MPI | METRO PACIFIC WATER - TAKEOVER OF SAN JOSE DEL MONTE SYSTEM

Metro Pacific Investments Corp.'s (MPI) water subsidiary, Metro Pacific Water, disclosed preparations to assume management of the San Jose del Monte (Bulacan) water distribution system following Primewater's exit from the concession. Metro Pacific Water has a track record of acquiring and professionalizing distressed or transitioning water utilities in the Philippines, with its portfolio spanning Maynilad (MYNLD, through a stake in the MWSS concession framework) and several provincial water utilities. The San Jose del Monte takeover adds a growing urban-fringe municipality in Bulacan - one of Metro Manila's fastest-expanding satellite cities - to its service territory.

🟡 MONITOR - MPI water expansion positive for long-term regulated utility earnings MPI @ PHP N/A (not listed separately)

ENERGY SECTOR | DIESEL PRICES JUMP PHP 5+/L; ENERGY FIRMS SEE STRONG DEMAND

Diesel prices in the Philippines jumped more than PHP 5 per liter as the Iran war tightened global oil supply outlook, with WTI crude recovering to USD 91.18/bbl and Brent to USD 94.20/bbl in Monday's session. Energy firms report strong demand: domestic power consumption is rising as urbanization accelerates and heat seasons intensify. For PSE-listed energy names, higher fuel prices are a mixed signal - they benefit upstream (SCC, PCOR, SGP) but pressure downstream consumers and utilities that depend on liquid fuel for peaking capacity. Semirara Mining (SCC) remains exposed positively to coal price moves (coal at USD 151.25/MT, up +1.68%), though net foreign selling of PHP 15.4M dragged the stock to PHP 26.10 (-1.51%).

🟡 MONITOR - SGP, SCC, FGEN benefit from energy demand; PCOR, MER face cost pressure @ PHP

BPI | BPI x VINFAST - EV FINANCING PARTNERSHIP

Bank of the Philippine Islands (BPI) formalized a financing partnership with VinFast Auto Philippines to provide vehicle loan products for VinFast EV buyers, making BPI the official financing partner for the Vietnamese automaker's Philippine operations. VinFast has been aggressively expanding its Philippines dealer network and product lineup as EV adoption grows. The BPI-VinFast deal extends the bank's ecosystem financing capabilities into the fast-growing electric vehicle segment - adding to similar partnerships in the healthcare (AC Health/SECB), agriculture, and renewable energy supply chain sectors.

DNL | D&L INDUSTRIES - UPBEAT AS RAW MATERIAL COSTS EASE

D&L Industries (DNL) turned more optimistic on its outlook as raw material input costs continued to moderate from peak levels. The company - which manufactures specialty chemicals, food ingredients, oleochemicals, and performance materials - benefits directly from lower feedstock costs as margins expand. DNL closed June 8 at PHP 3.70 (+2.78%) on PHP 47.1M in value and PHP 10.4M net foreign selling.

🟡 MONITOR - Margin recovery thesis building; watch for earnings confirmation DNL @ PHP PHP 3.70
