Market Report For: Monday, October 12, 2026 · Covers the Friday, October 9 PSE session

PSEi snaps back +1.61% to 5,700.99 as crude retreats; all six sectors green. Mynt offer closes today.

BOTTOM LINE

Friday's rebound recovered about 72% of Thursday's 126-point drop (PSEi 5,610.39 → 5,700.99), with 120 advancers vs 57 decliners on ₱7.82B of turnover. Foreigners stayed net sellers (−₱133.1M) but far less than Thursday's −₱1.18B, and heavy selling in ICT, RLC and SM was offset by buying in AEV, PGOLD and AC. Our stance: constructive but selective. Use the Mynt IPO window (closes today) and dips in quality names; do not chase Meralco's block-driven spike.

KEY TAKEAWAYS — 60-SECOND READ

- Tape: PSEi +1.61% (+90.60) to 5,700.99; All Shares +1.47% to 3,191.85. Mining & Oil +2.80%, Services +2.36%, Industrial +2.33%; Property (+0.79%) and Holding Firms (+0.61%) lagged.
- Flows: Net foreign selling narrowed to −₱133.1M (buy ₱3.08B / sell ₱3.21B) from −₱1.18B on Oct 8. Top net buys: AEV +₱68.3M, PGOLD +₱32.7M, AC +₱23.4M. Top net sells: ICT −₱180.6M, RLC −₱88.6M, SM −₱87.6M.
- Macro: WTI $90.55 / Brent $103.38 (both lower), PHL 10-yr down ~14bp to 7.94%, USD-PHP 62.81, spot gold above $4,200 on record-pace ETF inflows and signs inflation may be easing.
- Catalysts: Mynt (GCash) offer closes today, lists Oct 20; Meralco rate hike next billing cycle; Philippines joins JPM GBI-EM on Jan 29, 2027.
- Risks: SMC leverage, jet fuel near $5/gal, El Niño-driven inflation-expectations risk; PSEi is only 2.1% above its 52-week low (5,584.35).

IPO · SUBSCRIBE — MYNT (GCash), ₱6.60 offer

Offer closes today (Mon Oct 12); listing Oct 20. The ₱6.60 final price values Mynt at ~₱441.5B (~US$7B). Our fair value is near ₱8 (≈20.4x 2026E earnings on ~25% EPS growth), about 21% above the offer.

ACTION / LEVEL: Confirm orders before today's cut-off. Expect volatility around the Oct 20 listing.

BUY — GLO, ₱1,528 (+0.79%)

The "GCash discount." Globe owns 34% of Mynt: that stake is worth ~₱150B at the IPO price against Globe's ~₱219B market cap. The market is paying only ~₱69B (before debt) for the core telecom business.

ACTION / LEVEL: Add into weakness ahead of the Oct 20 listing. Oct 9 range ₱1,514–1,539.

ACCUMULATE ON DIPS — ICT, ₱859 (+2.08%)

The core port business remains highly profitable. Thursday's drop to ₱841.50 (−₱326.4M foreign selling) followed an extraordinary record rally: profit-taking, not structural damage. Friday's rebound met −₱180.6M more foreign selling, yet two block crosses (₱868.87–874.25, ₱191.1M) printed above the close.

ACTION / LEVEL: Buy dips toward ₱841.50–846.50 (Oct 8 close / Oct 9 low). Oct 9 high ₱891.

TENDER — FCG, ₱0.77 (+14.93%)

FCG appeared on the Oct 8 suspension list and traded again Oct 9. Parent Figaro Coffee Systems plans to delist FCG and offer ₱0.82/share: 22% above the pre-suspension price (₱0.67) but only 6.5% above Friday's close. Volume was 58.4M shares (₱45.2M).

ACTION / LEVEL: Do not bid above ₱0.82. Holders weigh tendering against illiquidity after delisting.

HOLD · DIP-BUY < ₱500 AC, ₱539 (+1.70%)

Backed by a ₱44.5B Mitsubishi investment and high-growth GCash exposure (via Mynt). Target price ₱652.63: ~21% upside from ₱539 (~24% from the ~₱525 reference). Dividend yield ~1.87%. Foreign net buy +₱23.4M.

ACTION / LEVEL: Hold; add below ₱500.

HOLD · DIP-BUY < ₱87 FPH, ₱88.00 (−1.12%)

A ₱5B buyback plus a ₱1.10 dividend underpin the stock. Thin trading (₱6.4M value) and a small decline amid a broad rally.

ACTION / LEVEL: Hold; add below ₱87.00.

MONITOR MER, ₱437 (+5.30%)

A ₱2.19B block (3.77M shares at ₱580.99, ~33% above the close) is a stake transfer, not a re-rating. Meralco's rate hike takes effect next billing cycle (BusinessWorld).

ACTION / LEVEL: Support ₱415 (Oct 8 close); resistance ₱443.40 (Oct 9 high). Do not chase.

MONITOR SMC, ₱62.10 (+0.98%)

Earnings are strong (1H26 core net profit +48% to ₱54.2B on Petron, power and food) and access to local credit remains solid, but operating cash flow covers only ~5.1% of total debt. SMC Global Power USD perpetuals yield 8.5–9%. Trading is thin (₱1.5M on 23,940 shares).

ACTION / LEVEL: Avoid adding until cash-flow coverage improves.

Wall Street closed higher Friday as tech rebounded (Dow +0.83%, S&P 500 +0.59%, Nasdaq +0.64%), and Asian futures point higher. The PSEi's +1.61% beat every Asian index we track except the Hang Seng (+1.79%), helped by the pullback in crude. iShares MSCI Philippines (EPHE) gained 2.69% in New York. Sentiment is "cautious to short-term bullish": markets are testing resistance, with underlying caution.

Oil retreat is the macro tailwind. WTI fell 1.42% to $90.55 and Brent 1.28% to $103.38, easing pressure on the peso and on fuel-heavy names. Watch jet fuel: New York and Los Angeles prices are surging back toward $5/gal as Ukrainian drone strikes hit Russian refineries and Middle East product exports fall, a cost risk for airlines (CEB, PAL). Gold reclaimed $4,200 (spot as much as +1.8% Friday) as gold-backed ETF inflows hit a four-year high and signs emerge that inflation is easing; JPMorgan earned ~$700M trading precious metals in 1H26. Base metals are firm outside nickel; coal near its 12-month high (+42% y/y) supports SCC.

PSE read-through: Mining & Oil +2.80% (APX +7.72%, AT +2.97%, OGP +1.31%); SCC +5.45% on coal; NIKL +0.78% despite softer nickel. Softer crude helps airlines and consumers (CEB +3.60%).

Yields eased: the PHL 10-year fell ~14bp to 7.94% and the US 10-year slipped to 5.23%. The peso firmed 0.25% to 62.81. BusinessWorld expects the peso to move sideways as markets await key US data. Treasury bill and bond rates may still rise on inflation concerns, and a strong ₱167.25B new-money take-up in 2.5-year retail bonds gives the government funding flexibility.

A relief rally, not yet a trend. The PSEi rose as global crude retreated and local yields eased, with all six sector indices green and mining, services and industrials leading. But foreigners remain net sellers and the index is still ~14.6% below its 52-week high: breadth improved, conviction has not.

Where we lean in

- Mynt IPO / GLO / AC: the GCash ecosystem is the clearest valuation gap. Mynt at ₱6.60 (FV ~₱8); Globe's 34% stake covers about two-thirds of its market cap; AC adds GCash exposure plus Mitsubishi's ₱44.5B backing.
- ICT on dips: fundamentals intact; Thursday's foreign-driven slide is a buying zone near ₱841–847.
- Foreign-accumulation watch: AEV (+₱68.3M net foreign, +1.96%) and PGOLD (+₱32.7M, +2.50%) drew the largest net buying.

What to avoid / monitor

- Banks: keep at MONITOR while the PHL 10-year (7.94%) stays above our 7% caution trigger, even as BDO (+1.80%) saw bargain-hunting and PNB (+3.25%) may tap offshore debt in early 2027.
- SMC: leverage risk persists despite 1H26 earnings strength. MER: do not chase the block-driven jump.

Macro and policy watch

- Inflation expectations: renewed El Niño shocks raise the risk of de-anchoring (BusinessWorld). August hot-money outflows were $315M; the debt-service bill fell sharply in August.
- Index inclusion: the Philippines adopts international bond-pricing conventions on Jan 4, 2027, excluding the 20% withholding-tax effect from local-currency bond price and settlement calculations, ahead of entry into J.P. Morgan's GBI-EM series on Jan 29, 2027.
- Market structure: the SEC proposes raising minimum unimpaired paid-up capital for broker-dealers to ₱120M, and is tying sustainability reporting closer to financial reporting and revising green-equity rules. Defense-spending debate continues after the military pact with France.

All groups green. Mining & Oil (+2.80%), Services (+2.36%) and Industrial (+2.33%) led; the desk brief cited gains above 3.0% for these groups, but the PSE DQR shows the figures above and is authoritative. Property (+0.79%) and Holding Firms (+0.61%) booked modest gains as SM (−1.44%) held back holdings. Financials added 1.50% as BDO (+1.80%), BPI (+1.51%) and MBT (+1.42%) rose.

Foreigners bought ₱3.08B and sold ₱3.21B, a net sale of ₱133.1M: net selling again, but about one-ninth of Thursday's ₱1.18B. Selling concentrated in ICT (−₱180.6M), RLC (−₱88.6M) and SM (−₱87.6M); buying was led by AEV (+₱68.3M), PGOLD and AC. RLC was sold into price strength (+1.85%), a sign of profit-taking, while SM fell 1.44% on the selling.

Mid-caps outperformed the PSEi (equal-weighted +2.33% vs +1.61%): miners (APX +7.72%) and gaming/consumer names (BLOOM +4.69%, SGP +4.55%) led, while PX (−0.18%) lagged with the heaviest foreign selling (−₱33.2M). Roster per PSE circular CN-2026-0035 (effective Aug 3, 2026).

The concept. A holding company can trade for less than its parts are worth. A sum-of-the-parts (SOTP) view values each asset separately, then compares the total with the market cap. The gap is the "discount" — an opportunity only if it closes.

Globe–Mynt SOTP (desk figures)	Value
Mynt valuation at ₱6.60 IPO price	₱441.5B (~US$7B)
× Globe's ownership of Mynt	34%
Value of Globe's Mynt stake	~₱150.1B
Globe market cap (desk figure)	~₱219.3B
Stake as % of Globe market cap	~68%
Implied value of core telecom (before debt)	~₱69.1B

Why it matters. At ₱6.60 the Mynt stake alone covers roughly two-thirds of Globe's market cap, so the market is valuing the telecom infrastructure at a steep discount. That is the basis for our BUY on GLO.
Caveats. (1) Globe carries net debt that the "before debt" figure ignores. (2) Holding companies often trade at a structural discount. (3) The IPO price is not a trading price: post-listing and lock-in dynamics can move Mynt either way. (4) Dividend flows from Mynt to Globe may lag its valuation. Takeaway: treat the discount as a margin of safety, not a guarantee, and watch the Oct 20 listing for confirmation.
