Pre-Market Research | July 27, 2026 | Session: July 24, 2026

THE CALL

PSEi closed virtually flat at 6,281.01 (-0.03%) in a volatile Friday session that saw the index test 6,189 intraday before recovering. The week's defining story: ICT reversed to +P152M net foreign buying after three sessions of heavy selling totaling P771M, as the stock gained 1.3% to P969. Meanwhile, Brent crude crashed 8.9% from $100.52 to $91.53 — the sharpest single-session drop in months — easing some of the energy-driven inflation pressure. However, BDO saw P140M foreign selling (session's largest outflow) and ALI recorded its 6th consecutive day of institutional distribution. PHL 10Y spiked to 7.596%, the highest this cycle, as Fed hike odds rose on persistent energy costs. Gold surged to $4,166 on safe-haven demand.

QUICK HIGHLIGHTS

	ICT REVERSES to +P152M buying after P771M cumulative selling — stock +1.3% to P969
	Brent crashes 8.9% from $100.52 to $91.53 — sharpest drop in months; Gold $4,166
	BDO -P140M selling, ALI -P110M (6th straight session); Financials -1.38% worst sector
	PHL 10Y spikes to 7.596% — highest this cycle; Fed hike odds rising
	Globe-KDDI mobile digital partnership; Atlas Mining redevelopment; SONA agenda in focus
	Net foreign selling narrows to -P48M — near neutral; PSEi week: -0.03% Fri, +0.24% Thu, -1.04% Wed

INTERNATIONAL

U.S. mixed Friday: S&P flat, Nasdaq -1.1%, Dow +236. Oil crashed from $100 to $91 but still up big on week from Gulf/Red Sea disruptions. Yields rose on energy-driven inflation — Fed hike odds next week ticking up. Intel fell 7.9% despite strongest revenue growth in 17 years. Alphabet and Tesla spending plans failed to ease AI jitters. EPHE (Philippine ETF) showed SM, BPI, BDO, ALI, MBT, JFC as top advancers. Dollar hit 40-year high vs yen. ECB held rates. China-PHL ships clashed again hours after diplomats met. Rubio confronted Wang Yi in 90-min session on trade and Taiwan.

CORPORATE STANCE CARDS

ICT 969.00ICT Reverses to +P152M Foreign Buying After P771M Cumulative Selling

ICT recorded P152.1 million in net foreign buying, decisively reversing three sessions of heavy institutional selling (-P56M, -P503M, -P212M = P771M cumulative). The stock gained 1.3% to P969 on P2.1 billion turnover. Block at P957 and VWAP at P948 were below close, suggesting buyers stepped up at support levels. The Brent pullback from $100 to $91.53 eases the oil-driven macro overhang while preserving ICT's dollar-earner advantage.

The flow reversal confirms our thesis that the prior selling was fund rebalancing rather than fundamental. ICT remains the PSEi's anchor holding. The P940-P960 range has now been tested and held.

ACCUMULATE ON DIPS*MWC 34.50Manila Water Attracts P64M Foreign Buying — 5th Consecutive Session

Manila Water recorded P64.2 million in net foreign buying on P236M turnover, extending its streak to five sessions totaling P265M. The stock dipped 1.7% to P34.50 despite persistent institutional demand, suggesting profit-taking at elevated levels. MWC remains the most consistent defensive-flow name in the PSEi.

MWC's P265M five-session inflow is the most concentrated utility-sector accumulation this month. The water utility's regulated earnings provide a hedge against rate volatility.

ACCUMULATE*BDO 123.00BDO Plunges 2.4% with P140M Foreign Selling — Session's Largest Outflow

BDO dropped 2.38% to P123 with P140.4 million in net foreign selling, the heaviest single-name outflow on the session. Block sales of P30M at P124.94 suggest institutional distribution. The Financials sector was the worst performer at -1.38%. PHL 10Y at 7.596% is the highest this cycle, pressuring bank valuations.

BDO's P140M outflow is the largest single-session selling for the name this week. Support at P120 is critical. The PHL 10Y spike to 7.596% and potential Fed hike create a challenging near-term outlook for bank stocks. BSP Aug. 27 decision is the next catalyst.

MONITOR*ALI 16.70ALI Foreign Selling Extends to 6th Session — Cumulative Outflow Exceeds P645M

Ayala Land fell 0.8% to P16.70 with P110 million in net foreign selling, marking the sixth consecutive session of institutional outflows. Block sales totaled P186M across three transactions at P16.82-P16.83. Cumulative selling now exceeds P645M, the most sustained period of ALI distribution in recent memory.

AC's ongoing buyback at P16.83-P16.93 provides a visible floor but has not stemmed the foreign tide. The stock is now below the buyback price, creating a technical disconnect. Wait for flow reversal.

AVOID NEAR-TERM*BRENT / OIL*Brent Crashes 8.9% from $100 to $91.53 — $100 Threshold Proves Unsustainable

Brent crude plunged 8.9% from $100.52 to $91.53, the sharpest single-session drop in months. WTI fell to $84.21. The crash came as the Strait of Hormuz situation showed signs of de-escalation and profit-taking hit over-extended long positions. However, oil remains elevated on the week given ongoing U.S.-Iran strikes and Red Sea shipping disruptions. Gold surged to $4,165.80 on safe-haven rotation.

The $100 level proved psychologically unsustainable in the near term. Brent at $91 still represents elevated prices. Aviation (PAL, CEB) gets relief but dollar earners (ICT) retain tailwind. Consumer-facing margin pressure eases modestly.

MACRO EVENT

GLO 1,819.00Globe Partners with Japan's KDDI to Explore Mobile Digital Services

Globe Telecom announced a partnership with Japan's KDDI Corporation to explore mobile digital services including AI-powered customer solutions, IoT platforms, and digital content distribution. The collaboration aims to leverage KDDI's Japanese technology expertise with Globe's Philippine market reach. GLO fell 0.2% to P1,819 with P2.4M net foreign selling.

The KDDI partnership adds incremental technology capabilities but is unlikely to move the stock near-term. Globe remains a Mynt IPO value-unlock story.

 MONITOR*AEV 33.90Aboitiz Equity Attracts P33M Foreign Buying; Taps Petron for Bohol Airport Fuel

Aboitiz Equity Ventures gained 1.6% to P33.90 with P32.8M net foreign buying. The conglomerate's aviation subsidiary tapped Petron to build and operate a fuel depot at Bohol-Panglao International Airport, expanding its infrastructure portfolio.

AEV's consistent foreign buying positions it as a beneficiary of infrastructure capex. The Bohol fuel depot adds recurring revenue from aviation fuel supply.

 MONITOR*URC 59.45URC Sees P111M Foreign Selling — Consumer Names Under Sustained Pressure

Universal Robina fell 0.5% to P59.45 with P111.3 million in net foreign selling on P141M turnover. The consumer food company continues to face headwinds from input costs (Brent still $91 despite pullback) and rate-driven consumer caution.

URC's P111M session outflow is among the largest for the name this week. Consumer staples face a difficult environment with elevated energy costs and rates.

 MONITOR*SGP 28.05Synergy Grid Attracts P26M Foreign Buying; Power Infrastructure Play

Synergy Grid closed at P28.05 with P25.6 million in net foreign buying on P103M turnover. The power transmission company benefits from structural demand for grid infrastructure as the Philippines expands renewable energy capacity.

SGP enters the Most Active top 10 for the first time this week, signaling growing institutional interest in power infrastructure.

 MONITOR*SONA / MACRO*SONA Week: Investors Seek Achievable Agenda; Housing VAT, AI Governance in Focus

President Marcos's State of the Nation Address (SONA) is the week's key political catalyst. Investors are seeking an achievable policy agenda including housing VAT exemption cap hikes, PEZA moratorium lifting, AI governance frameworks, and labor safeguards. SEC has incorporated latest accounting sustainability reporting standards.

SONA rhetoric will set the tone for H2 2026 policy direction. Housing VAT exemption directly benefits property developers (ALI, SMPH, RLC). PEZA moratorium lift supports BPO/office market.
