PHILIPPINES STRATEGY

The session marked a decisive reversal from last week's -₱1.04B selling. ICT's Q2 +21% profit growth powered the PSEi back above 6,300, reclaiming ground lost in Thursday's selloff. The net buy of +₱75.66M is modest but the breadth was healthy (109-79 advancers). Key sentiment shifts: (1) MER bounced off ₱480 as ERC cleared ₱8.7B cost recovery — first positive foreign session in six days; (2) MYNLD reversed from -₱487M to +₱51M as rebalancing flows stabilised; (3) AC executed a ₱579M ALI buyback, the largest single tranche this month.

The global backdrop is supportive: Dow record on Middle East de-escalation, oil easing, USD-PHP at 60.93 (strongest in weeks). PHL 10Y at 7.45% continues its decline from 7.535% a week ago. Services sector's +3.30% surge signals ICT-driven momentum. Property was the only decliner (-0.84%) as ALI's -5.33% drag persisted. SMC's ₱30B oversubscribed preferred offering strengthens its capital base. Watch the Aug PSEi rebalance for MYNLD inclusion finalisation.

CORPORATE UPDATES

ICT ACCUMULATE

ICT surges +4.36% to ₱1,005 on Q2 profit +21%; +₱508.4M foreign — dominant flow name

ICTSI posted Q2 net profit growth of +21% y/y powered by surging cargo volumes across its ~36 global terminals. Chairman Razon noted double-digit growth in volumes, revenues and earnings. ICT closed at ₱1,005, drawing a massive +₱508.4M in net foreign buying — by far the session's dominant flow name. The 25-year MICT concession extension to 2063 and a management reshuffle have not disrupted the growth trajectory. ICT remains the PSE's largest company by market capitalisation.

MER MONITOR / BOTTOM-FISHING

MER rebounds +1.46% to ₱487 with +₱36.2M foreign; ERC clears ₱8.7B cost recovery

Meralco bounced off the ₱480 floor for the first time in five sessions, closing at ₱487. The ERC cleared ₱8.7B in cost recovery per BusinessWorld — a positive regulatory signal. Foreign flow turned positive at +₱36.2M after sustained selling. The system loss charge overhang from SONA remains but the price action suggests a potential basing pattern forming at ₱480. Shift from AVOID to MONITOR / BOTTOM-FISHING for risk-tolerant investors.

AC/ALI ACCUMULATE (AC) / DEEP VALUE (ALI)

AC +0.59% to ₱514.50; ALI -5.33% to ₱16.00; AC buys ₱579M in ALI shares

Ayala Corp bought 34.282M shares of Ayala Land at ₱16.89 avg for ₱579M — the largest single parent buyback tranche this month. ALI fell sharply to ₱16.00 (-5.33%) with -₱31.9M foreign selling, extending the persistent exit. AC itself drew +₱13.4M foreign. The parent buyback at ₱16.89 provides a clear floor reference. ALI deep-value thesis requires patience; AC as the holding vehicle offers better risk/reward.

MYNLD MONITOR

MYNLD +3.72% to ₱19.50 with +₱50.8M foreign; sharp reversal from -₱487M selling

Maynilad surged to ₱19.50 with +₱50.8M net foreign buying — a dramatic reversal from last session's -₱486.8M selloff. Five MYNLD blocks totalling 23M shares (₱435M) crossed during the session. The BWorld report of easing shares ahead of PSEi inclusion may signal the rebalancing is near completion. Upgraded from AVOID to MONITOR as rebalancing flows stabilise.

SMC MONITOR

SMC completes ₱30B follow-on preferred share offering; listed on PSE

San Miguel Corp completed a ₱30B preferred share follow-on offering, which was oversubscribed per BWorld. The listing adds to SMC's capital base for infrastructure and diversified operations. SMC common closed at ₱65.90 (-1.64%) with -₱2.1M foreign selling. The preferred deal is dilution-neutral to common equity and strengthens the balance sheet.

AP ACCUMULATE ON DIPS

AP breaks ground on 239 MWp Negros solar project; +P3.9M foreign

AboitizPower broke ground on a 239 MWp solar project in Negros per BWorld, expanding its renewable energy portfolio. AP closed at P43.00 with +P3.9M foreign buying. The solar project adds to AP's 4.7 GW total capacity target by 2030. AEV (parent) also drew +P4.2M.

SERVICES ACCUMULATE SELECTIVELY

Services sector surges +3.30% (+111.82 pts) — best sector of the session

Services was the standout sector at +3.30%, driven by ICT's +4.36% and CNVRG's heavy block activity (P200M across 3 blocks). Telcos proposed P31B undersea fiber network. ABS-CBN denied MVP/MediaQuest management turnover report. Jollibee opened a downtown San Francisco store.

GLOBAL MONITOR

Dow books record close; oil slumps on Trump-Iran de-escalation; peso strengthens

US equities rallied: Dow record close +1.32%, S&P +1.48%, NASDAQ +2.13%. Oil slumped as Trump held off Iran attack with talks to resume — easing inflation fears. Copper inflows surged ahead of tariff call. Japan spent ¥5.33T ($33.9B) to support the yen on Friday. Palantir pre-market +12% on raised guidance. World Bank cut Philippines 2026 growth forecast to 5.2%. USD-PHP strengthened to 60.93 from 61.40. PHL 10Y eased to 7.45%.
