Pre-Market Institutional Equity Research

Wednesday, 15 July 2026 | Covering the 14 July 2026 PSE session | Source of record: PSE Daily Quotation Report (DQR)

THE CALL

Stabilisation after the storm. The PSEi slipped just -0.15% (-9.70) to 6,256.02 — a shallow third down-day — but the internals turned friendlier: foreigners FLIPPED to net buyers (+P229M) and Mining & Oil (+1.30%) led a rebound as the oil complex held its Strait-of-Hormuz premium. Breadth stayed heavy (82/109/49) on a light P5.28B value day. The tape's clearest tell remains ICT — a second straight session of ~P390M foreign inflow and #1 turnover. Offsetting that, URC (-P64M) and SM Prime (-P63M) drew the day's heaviest foreign distribution. Regional relief — Japan's 20-yr JGB yield -11.5bps to 3.63%, TSMC sales +36%, and JPMorgan's blow-out 2Q — steadied sentiment after Monday's Kospi crash.

WATCH: VITRO REIT pricing · PSEi reconstitution (CNVRG) · PHL 10-yr path (~7.26%) · US bank earnings · oil / Strait-of-Hormuz headlines.

PHILIPPINE SESSION — 14 JULY 2026

Manila logged a third consecutive decline, but a shallow one — the PSEi shed just 9.70 points to 6,256.02 as investors trimmed into a light, holiday-thin ₱5.28B tape. The more important shift was in the internals: after the prior session's outflow, foreigners returned as net buyers of ₱229M, and Mining & Oil (+1.30%) rebounded hardest as crude held its geopolitical premium. Industrials (+0.06%) and Services (+0.29%) also closed green, while Holding Firms (-0.84%) and Property (-0.34%) capped the index. Breadth stayed defensive at 82 advancers to 109 decliners. Flow, not price, told the story — concentrated foreign buying of ICT (+₱390M, a second straight day) against heavy distribution of URC (-₱64M) and SM Prime (-₱63M).

CORPORATE NEWS & STANCES

ACCUMULATE ON DIPS

ICT Int'l Container Terminal Svcs.P993.00 +0.51%

ICT again topped the tape — #1 turnover at P1.23B and the day's dominant conviction bid, drawing +P390.4M of net foreign buying for a SECOND straight session (block-crossed 305,950 sh at P987.39). Against a soft, risk-off Manila tape and a light P5.28B value day, that concentration of foreign flow into a single dollar-earning name is the clearest institutional tell on the board. The port operator's global throughput and USD revenue base keep it the desk's core defensive-growth holding.

Stance: Accumulate on dips. PT P1,200. Two-day foreign inflow of ~P780M underpins the thesis; add on weakness toward the P950s.

MONITOR — IMPROVING

TEL PLDT Inc. / VITRO REITP1,180.00 +1.29%

PLDT outperformed the index and foreign flow flipped decisively to buying (+P19.4M), landing it inside the day's ten most active at P103.5M. The pending listing of its data-center REIT (VITRO, filed for up to P24.2B) remains the key value-unlock catalyst as AI-driven data-center demand stays firmly in focus regionally (TSMC's +36% sales print underscores the capex cycle).

Stance: Monitor (improving). Constructive on the VITRO unlock; watch REIT pricing and the foreign-flow follow-through.

MONITOR

BPI Bank of the Philippine Islands (Banks)P103.00 +0.98%

Banks split on flow: BPI took +P36.2M of foreign buying (2nd straight session), joined by AUB (+P27.9M) and MBT (+P8.5M), while BDO saw the sector's heaviest outflow at -P41.0M. With the PHL 10-yr holding ~7.26%, the rate backdrop still caps multiple expansion even as select foreign accumulation continues. JPMorgan's blow-out 2Q (revenue $58.0B vs. $51.4B est., ROE 24%) sets a constructive tone into the US bank-earnings run.

Stance: Monitor while the 10-yr holds above 7%. BPI/MBT the preferred foreign-favored exposures; keep the leash on BDO.

CONSTRUCTIVE

APX Mining complex (APX · PX · AT)P12.66 +2.93%

Mining & Oil was the day's best sector (+1.30%) as the Strait-of-Hormuz oil premium held and metals steadied. Apex Mining led with +P12.8M of foreign buying, alongside PX (+P5.1M) and Atlas (+P0.4M) — a clean reversal from Monday's global-metals rout. The move rewards the desk's mining follow-through watch (APX, AT, PX, OGP).

Stance: Constructive on momentum. APX is the foreign favorite; use the oil bid as the tactical driver, mindful that commodity prices were carried flat in today's data.

MONITOR

SMPH SM Prime HoldingsP18.00 -0.55%

SMPH drew the second-heaviest foreign outflow on the board at -P62.8M — a second consecutive session of concentrated distribution — even as it stayed among the most active (P116.7M). Property remains challenged (the sector eased -0.34%), and consultants still flag a difficult stretch for the broader property market through 2026. Persistent foreign selling keeps the risk skewed near-term.

Stance: Monitor. Foreign distribution is the tell; wait for flow to stabilize before adding.

MONITORURC Universal Robina CorpP60.25 -0.74%

URC registered the single largest net foreign outflow of the session at -P64.1M, extending a soft run for consumer staples on the foreign book. Fundamentals are steady, but the flow picture argues for patience.

Stance: Monitor. Heaviest single-name outflow of the day; let the selling exhaust before re-engaging.

ACCUMULATEALI Ayala Land, Inc.P15.80 -1.00%

ALI eased with the property tape and foreign flow reversed to selling (-P29.0M) after Monday's inflow (block-crossed 2.9M sh at P15.946). The deep-value thesis is intact — trading well below book with the Ayala group's balance-sheet backstop — but the near-term flow is a headwind alongside a still-bottoming property cycle.

Stance: Accumulate (deep value) on the dip toward 52-week support; size in tranches given the foreign selling.

MONITORJFC Jollibee Foods CorpP146.00 -0.34%

JFC saw a second straight day of heavy foreign profit-taking (-P38.7M) even as the shares held broadly flat and stayed active (P102.9M). The franchise story is unchanged, but the persistence of the foreign selling shifts the near-term bias from accumulate to watch.

Stance: Monitor (downgraded from Accumulate on flow). Re-add into the low-P140s once foreign selling abates.

GOVERNANCE / SECTOR
BSP	BSP — AI Governance Principles
The Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas issued AI-governance principles for financial institutions, anchored on sustainability, transparency, accountability, responsibility and security, and covering both the BSP and outsourced providers. The framework is designed to widen adoption of AI in financial services while protecting consumers and trust — a modest positive for digitally-forward banks and fintech-exposed names over time.
Stance: Sector watch. Neutral near-term; supportive of the longer-run digital-banking and data-infrastructure themes.

INTERNATIONAL & MACRO

Wall Street — banks lead	JPMorgan's 2Q blew past estimates: revenue $58.0B (est. $51.4B), EPS $7.70, ROE 24%, AUM $5.1T, aided by a $4.6B Visa-share gain. Equities sales & trading revenue hit $6.03B (est. $3.98B). Dimon flagged a 'particularly favourable environment' while cautioning that risks are 'shifting below the surface.' A constructive set-up into the US bank-earnings run.
Japan — yields ease	The 20-year JGB yield plunged 11.5bps to 3.630%, relieving regional bond-market pressure and offering room for short-term rallies across Hong Kong, Singapore and Southeast Asia.
Asia tech — relief rally	After Monday's rout (Kospi -8.95%, SK Hynix -15%), regional benchmarks steadied: Kospi +0.73%, Nikkei +0.74%, SHCOMP +1.36%, Hang Seng +0.52%. TSMC sales rose 36%, reaffirming the AI-capex cycle even as Taiwan's TWSE lagged (-1.42%).
Commodities	Oil retained its Strait-of-Hormuz premium (WTI ~$80, Brent ~$85); the metals and softs complex was carried flat in today's data and is read directionally only.
