FIRST NEWS

Pre-Market Institutional Equity Research | July 21, 2026 | PSE Session: July 20, 2026

THE CALL

PSEi edged up +0.18% to 6,415.72 in a session dominated by Mining & Oil (+3.85%) and Services (+2.22%), while Property (-1.46%) and Holdings (-0.82%) gave back prior-session gains. Foreign investors remained net buyers at +P640M, with ICT commanding a staggering P549M single-name inflow as the stock surged 2.9% to P1,027. Atlas Mining (AT) was the session standout, jumping 17.5% on an 807% first-half profit swing. Brent crude climbed further to $89.22 as U.S.-Iran strikes entered their ninth consecutive night. PHL 10Y spiked to 7.371%, the highest in recent sessions, amplifying rate-sensitivity risk across the market.

QUICK HIGHLIGHTS

	PSEi +0.18% to 6,416 — Mining & Oil led (+3.85%); breadth mixed (98 adv / 92 dec)
	Net foreign buying P640M — ICT alone P549M; TEL +P77M, BDO +P76M
	AT +17.5% on 807% NI surge; LPZ +18.8% on digital media pivot
	PAL signs MOU for up to 20 Boeing 787-10 Dreamliners at Farnborough Airshow
	Brent $89.22 — U.S.-Iran strikes now 9 nights; 3rd U.S. service member killed
	PHL 10Y spikes to 7.371% — ALI P113M foreign selling; SMPH, JFC, URC also sold

CORPORATE STANCE CARDS

ICT 1,027.00ICT Surges 2.9% to P1,027; Commands P549M Foreign Inflow — Largest Single-Name Flow in Weeks

International Container Terminal Services dominated the session with P1.91 billion in turnover and an extraordinary P548.5 million in net foreign buying, far exceeding every other name on the board. The stock gained 2.9% to P1,027, extending its streak as the PSE's most liquid and most foreign-accumulated name. Block sales of P372 million (322,750 shares at P998.07 and 50,000 shares at P998.41) underscored deep institutional demand even below the closing price.

ICT's dollar-denominated earnings profile becomes increasingly attractive as the peso weakens toward 61.70 and Brent crude pushes past $89, reinforcing its role as the PSE's premier currency-hedge anchor. The P549M session flow signals sustained accumulation rather than speculative churn.

 ACCUMULATE ON DIPS*AT 10.28Atlas Mining Surges on 807% Net Income Swing; Revenues Jump 64%

Atlas Mining was the session's breakout story, surging as gross revenues jumped 64% to P12.99 billion in 1H26 from P7.94 billion a year ago. The company reversed a P653 million net loss into a P4.62 billion profit, an 807% improvement. EBITDA surged 273% to P7.88 billion. The stock attracted P42.1 million in net foreign buying and entered the most-active top 10 with P151 million in turnover.

Atlas Mining's earnings reset is driven by higher nickel and copper volumes and prices. The mining sector's 3.85% gain reflects broader commodity tailwinds from Middle East supply disruption. AT is a high-beta play on continued oil/commodity escalation.

 MONITOR*PAL 2.34Philippine Airlines Signs MOU for Up to 20 Boeing 787-10 Dreamliners

Philippine Airlines signed a memorandum of understanding with Boeing at the Farnborough International Airshow for 15 firm Boeing 787-10 Dreamliner aircraft with options for five more. Deliveries are expected between 2031 and 2034. This marks PAL's first direct Boeing purchase in nearly 20 years. The 787-10 will complement PAL's existing fleet of 10 Boeing 777s and newly received Airbus A350-1000s. PAL was also formally invited to join the oneworld Alliance in 2026, with full membership expected by 2027.

The fleet modernization signals management confidence in Philippine long-haul demand growth, but the 2031+ delivery timeline means limited near-term earnings impact. PAL shares fell 1.7% on the session with P1.1M net foreign selling.

 MONITOR*AC 493.40A.P. Moller Capital Finalizes 40% Stake in AC Logistics

Ayala Corp. announced that A.P. Moller Capital has finalized its 40% strategic stake in AC Logistics following Philippine Competition Commission merger clearance. The Danish fund and the Philippine conglomerate aim to scale AC Logistics' four pillars: cold chain, air cargo, contract logistics, and national distribution. AC traded at P493.40, down 3.0% from the prior session, with P3.8M in net foreign buying.

The AC Logistics partnership positions Ayala to capture the logistics modernization wave in Philippine commerce. However, AC's session decline reflects broader holding-firm weakness (-0.82% sector) rather than deal-specific concerns.

 MONITOR*LPZ 5.00Lopez Holdings Surges 18.8% on Digital Media Pivot

Lopez Holdings rallied 18.76% to P5.00 on heavy volume of 3.57 million shares (P17.6M value) as the market priced in the conglomerate's strategic pivot from traditional free-to-air TV infrastructure toward digital streaming partnerships and real estate asset monetization. Net foreign selling was P2.6 million, suggesting the rally was driven primarily by local retail and institutional buyers.

LPZ's pivot reflects a broader industry trend of media conglomerates redeploying capital from legacy broadcast infrastructure into digital distribution. The sharp move may overshoot near-term fundamentals but signals a re-rating of the Lopez group's sum-of-parts value.

BRN 0.68A Brown Closes P2.3B Alternergy Wind Farm Investment

A Brown Company completed its P2.3 billion investment in two Alternergy Holdings wind farm projects, acquiring 40% stakes in the 128MW Tanay Wind Power Project in Rizal and the 64MW Alabat Wind Power Project in Quezon. The two-phase transaction was completed ahead of schedule. Alternergy retains 60% majority ownership and management control of both projects.

This is the largest single investment in A Brown Group's history and positions the company at the forefront of Philippine wind energy development. The Tanay and Alabat projects are among the first wind farms completed under the Marcos administration's Green Energy Auction. BRN traded flat at P0.68.

 MONITOR*ALI 16.96ALI Attracts P113M Foreign Selling Despite P310M Session Value

Ayala Land was the third most active stock at P310 million in value but saw the session's heaviest foreign selling at P112.7 million. The stock dipped 0.2% to P16.96 as property-sector weakness (-1.46%) weighed. The desk brief incorrectly listed ALI as a foreign buying name — DQR data clearly shows net selling. This may reflect profit-taking after the prior session's P147M inflow and P146.9M prior-session foreign buying.

The sharp reversal in ALI foreign flow from +P147M (July 17) to -P113M (July 20) suggests tactical rotation rather than fundamental concerns. Support at P16.50; monitor for flow stabilization before adding.

 MONITOR*GLO 1,870.00Globe Connects 180 Bayanihan SIM Sites

Globe Telecom continued expanding its network infrastructure by connecting 180 Bayanihan SIM sites as part of its commitment to improving connectivity in underserved communities. The telco traded flat at P1,870 but saw P42.6 million in net foreign selling, continuing the pattern of foreign outflows from the name across multiple sessions.

Globe's persistent foreign selling (P58M on July 17, P43M on July 20) suggests institutional repositioning ahead of the Mynt IPO rather than fundamental concerns. The P10B Landbank loan and Mynt value-unlock remain the key catalysts.

 MONITOR*SM 598.00SM Investments Attracts P36M Foreign Buying; Block Sales Active

SM Investments rose 0.2% to P598.00 on strong turnover of P536 million, making it the second most active stock. Net foreign buying reached P36.4 million. The holding company continues to benefit from its diversified exposure to banking (BDO), property (SMPH), and retail.

SM's session strength contrasts with the broader holding-firms sector decline (-0.82%), suggesting name-specific demand. With estimated dividend yield rising to 3.97%, SM offers improving income alongside conglomerate diversification.

 MONITOR*DHI 7.83Dominion Holdings Surges 7.1% on Consunji Takeover Restructuring

Dominion Holdings rallied 7.07% to P7.83 on 1.57 million shares as markets priced in the corporate restructuring following billionaire Isidro Consunji's (DMCI Holdings chairman) takeover as DHI chairman. The restructuring includes a pivot toward the mining sector, driving speculative interest.

DHI's restructuring under Consunji leadership adds optionality but remains speculative. Net foreign buying was P592K — modest, suggesting the rally is primarily local-driven.

 HOLD

MER / Energy Sector 588.00Energy Stocks in Focus as Middle East Strikes Intensify

Philippine energy shares moved on fresh Middle East escalation as the U.S. announced the death of a third service member in two days. Meralco gained 0.5% to P588 with P54.7M net foreign buying. The broader energy complex — including ACEN, SPNEC, AEV, DMC, FGEN, AP — faces dual catalysts: rising oil prices boosting generation margins and supply-disruption risk.

Brent above $89 and PHL 10Y at 7.371% create a complex environment for utilities. MER's defensive positioning and P55M foreign buying provide a floor, but rate-sensitivity caps upside.

INTERNATIONAL MACRO

U.S. Secretary of State Marco Rubio said he is open to meeting with Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov and Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi at the ASEAN meeting in Manila. The U.S. military launched a ninth consecutive night of strikes against targets in Iran, with a third American service member killed in the latest escalation. Brent crude climbed above $89 on supply disruption fears.

Asian stocks were mixed — South Korean equities fell led by chip stocks, while Chinese markets rallied after state funds revealed fresh purchases. Hang Seng jumped 2.4% to 25,143. The TWSE continued its selloff, losing another 0.5%. Top diplomats from China and the Philippines are set to meet this week for the first time in two years.

Spain dethroned Argentina to win the 2026 FIFA World Cup. The Philippine SEC proposed a revised framework for credit rating agencies. The PSE is rolling out reforms including ETF overhauls to redirect retail capital from online gambling and cryptocurrency. Philippines sold T-bills: 364-day at 5.966%, 182-day at 5.685%, 91-day at 5.104%.
